

6th ACiNE

Conference Information 會議資訊

We sincerely apologize for the delay in releasing the abstract submission information. The abstract submission platform is still under development in coordination with the Australian organizing team.

As soon as the submission site is ready, we will announce it immediately on the APANE website (New Release) and notify all APANE Board members and co-organizing institutions by email.

We appreciate your patience and understanding, and we look forward to your participation in ACiNE 2025.
